

Teachers Teaching Teachers

THE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CENTER

AT HANAHAU'OLI SCHOOL

Endowed by the
Clarence T.C. Ching Foundation

HANAHAU'OLI SCHOOL
EST. 1918

June 22 through July 24, 2020
8:00 to 11:15 AM Monday-Friday
Cost: $1100* Tuition waivers available
Summer School Program for Grades 1-5

THE SKILLS WE NEED

READING, WRITING, MATH,
RELATIONSHIP-BUILDING & WELLNESS

Hanahau'oli School is pleased to announce a brand new virtual Summer Program for students across the state entering grades 1 through 5. Join us in multi-age, child-centered, collaborative and interactive online classrooms aimed at building the skills and foundation needed for lifelong learning and engagement in our diverse democracy.

In partnership with a local family committed to providing access to high-quality, progressive education to all, HI-DOE students impacted by COVID-19 school closures are eligible for a limited number of tuition-free spaces on a first-come-first-served basis, with preference for students who demonstrate HI-DOE Free & Reduced Lunch status.

Interested in registering your child? Learn more about this and other Hanahau'oli Summer School offerings.

LEARN MORE &
REGISTER

Registration opens to the general public on May 27.

Learn more about Tuition Waiver eligibility and submit an Interest Form today!

TUITION WAIVER
INTEREST FORM

June 22 through July 24, 2020
8:00 to 11:15 AM Monday-Friday
Cost: $1100* Tuition waivers available
Summer School Program for Grades 1-5

THE SKILLS WE NEED

READING, WRITING, MATH,
RELATIONSHIP-BUILDING & WELLNESS

Hanahau'oli School is pleased to announce a brand new virtual Summer Program for students across the state entering grades 1 through 5. Join us in multi-age, child-centered, collaborative and interactive online classrooms aimed at building the skills and foundation needed for lifelong learning and engagement in our diverse democracy.

In partnership with a local family committed to providing access to high-quality, progressive education to all, HI-DOE students impacted by COVID-19 school closures are eligible for a limited number of tuition-free spaces on a first-come-first-served basis, with preference for students who meet HI-DOE Free & Reduced Lunch Eligibility Status.

The 5-week class will include:

- Loving Language Arts A multisensory reading and writing approach that integrates games, music, art, and movement (75 min daily)
- Making Sense With Math Math literacy and skill-building through games, small group instruction, and interactive sense-making and problem-solving (75 min daily)
- Mindful Wellness Mid-morning movement experiences centered on yoga, mindfulness, exercise, and supporting healthy family relationships and living (30 min daily)
- Play! Facilitated online play in line with Hanahau'oli's commitment to play and joyful work

Visit us online for more information and to apply:
www.hanahauoli.org/skills-we-need
or email pdcc@hanahauoli.org with any questions

Technology Requirements: *Control access capable of video conferencing (web camera/microphone required) *Internet connection is critical to videoconferencing in classes, with minimum speeds of 12 Mbps download / 8 Mbps upload check your connection speeds by going to www.speedtest.net *Headphones/headsets with working microphone *A functional understanding of online communication (or adult support) *A quiet place to have the virtual class with students and parents must sign an Acceptable Use Policy for online communication and access.

Please help us share this opportunity with eligible families by forwarding this message or sharing our flyer!

SUBSCRIBE TO THE PDC EMAIL LIST

Click on the link above to receive information about upcoming workshops and other opportunities for educators. Or contact us at pdcc@hanahauoli.org to learn more.

The Professional Development Center at Hanahau'oli School offers workshops for educators throughout the year. Please share this message to help us fill these excellent learning opportunities created and taught by teachers for teachers. Teachers Teaching Teachers. The Professional Development Center (PDC) at Hanahau'oli offers workshops and coursework about best practices in education with a particular emphasis on early childhood and the elementary years. Made possible through an endowment from the Clarence T.C. Ching Foundation, programs include teachers from both public and private schools joining together to create learning communities that foster 21st century skills.